Dear Parents/Carers,

It has been a very Egg-citing week at Great Clacton, with the arrival of 20 eggs on Monday. Of those 20, a very successful 19 have hatched. Class 4B and 6W have been predominately looking after them with all children able to visit. Some of the chicks will be collected next week and taken to new homes and we will be keeping 4 or 5 chicks to hand rear at school. We hope that the new additions will enjoy being part of our Great Clacton family and I know that the children will do a very good job at taking care of them. Hopefully our chicks will grow into some 'cracking' hens and we will have our very own fresh eggs incorporated into the school menu in just a few months time.

We have a great deal of lost property currently in school. We will be sorting through this next week and then putting out items for collection at the end of the day during the last week of this half term. There are numerous jumpers and ties without names. Please do ensure that all uniform is well labelled moving forward. It is such a shame to see so much unclaimed uniform.

I hope you all have a good weekend

Class Photo Orders

Children who had their class photo taken will receive a proof over the next couple of weeks. Parents/Carers will then be able to order copies online via Kittle Photographic

Late Arrivals

There has been a significant increase in the number of children arriving late to school. The gates close at 9am. All children arriving after this time are marked as late in the register and it is recording in their attendance record.
